EARTH DAY 1990—CAPITOL GROUNDS CELEBRATION

Whereas Congress has adopted Public Law 101-186 designating April 22, 1990, as "Earth Day" to promote the preservation of the environment;

Whereas the President has proclaimed his support for Earth Day 1990 and called on the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities designed to promote greater understanding of ecological issues; and Whereas Earth Day 1990 has expressed an interest in organizing a public event with musical entertainment to promote environmental awareness and environmentally responsible behavior: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That Earth Day 1990 shall be permitted to sponsor a public event with musical entertainment on the United States Capitol Grounds on April 22, 1990. This event shall be free to the public and arranged not to interfere with the needs of Congress, under conditions to be provided by the Architect of the Capitol and the Capitol Police Board. For the purposes of this resolution, the promoters of Earth Day 1990 are authorized to erect upon the United States Capitol Grounds, subject to the approval of the Architect of the Capitol, such stage, sound amplification devices, and other related structures and equipment, as may be required for the event and are authorized to make any arrangements that may be required to carry out the event.

Agreed to March 27, 1990.

"COLUMBUS IN THE CAPITOL" ARTS VOLUME— CAPITOL EXHIBITS

Whereas Christopher Columbus was a great and courageous explorer whose voyages of discovery are well known;

Whereas the year 1992 marks the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus in the year 1492; and

Whereas paintings, statues, and other works of art depicting the life and exploits of Christopher Columbus are displayed, both permanently and in special exhibits, in the Capitol and at other locations within the Capitol grounds: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That, as part of the observance of the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America, there shall be prepared a volume describing works of art honoring Christopher Columbus, as displayed, both permanently and in special exhibits, in the Capitol and at other locations within the Capitol grounds. The volume shall—

- (1) be entitled "Columbus in the Capitol";
- (2) contain descriptions and illustrations of such works of art; and
- (3) be prepared under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing, with the assistance of the Office of the Architect of the Capitol and such other congressional entities as the Joint Committee may require.

SEC. 2. During the year 1992, the Architect of the Capitol shall carry out a program of special exhibits of works of art honoring Christopher Columbus.

Agreed to April 4, 1990.

BAHA'I FAITH—IRANIAN PERSECUTION

May 15, 1990
[H. Con. Res. 87]

Whereas in 1982, 1984, and 1988, the Congress, by concurrent resolution, declared that it holds the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i Faith, Iran's largest religious minority;

Whereas in such resolutions and in numerous other appeals, the Congress condemned the Iranian Government's persecution of
